Wine Spectator cover
November 2018

"At Beurenard, generations of passionate succeed one another and Châteauneuf du Pape AOC itself grow from it, vintage after vintage."

Antoine Pétrus, Meilleur Ouvrier de France

"Beurenard is one of the sure values of the appellation. [...] The house style is very masterful and promises great surprises to those who know how to wait."

"Antonin and Victor Coulon, two brothers passionate about the terroirs of the appellation, are in the process of achieving some miracles which deserve close attention and reward."

"[...] the wines have further gained in finesse and natural expression in recent vintages, with at the top, the Gran Partita and Boisrenard vintages, more refined than ever."

Guide Bettane & Desseauve

"Top 10 southern Rhône producers of 2022 vintage" by Decanter

"The Coulons are among the most forward thinking in terms of their viticulture and winemaking."

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator

"Reference point Châteauneuf du Pape producer."

"This estate consistently makes one of the most classic, age worthy whites in the appellation"

Jeb Dunnuck

"Domaine de Beurenard is one of the best Rhone biodynamic estates."

"A very good domaine, highly reliable, with admirable quality over the decades I have known it."

John Livingstone

"Freshness, purity and transparency are words I often find myself using for the red and white tradition bottlings. These characteristics are accentuated in the red and white Boisrenard cuvées, which are rarely less than excellent [...]"

“The classic 2022 Châteauneuf-du-Pape from this terrific estate [...] it’s a killer 2022 that readers will love to have a case of in their cellars.”

Jeb Dunnuck

Wine Spectator

*“Heady, ripe and well-structured, with a cascade of spiced black plum, cherry and licorice snap notes firmed up by a beam of iron and a kick of menthol freshness. [...].
Suave but muscular tannins keep everything well-framed on the long finish.”*

“The 2021 Châteauneuf-du-Pape is just as tasty as the Boisrenard special cuvée this vintage, with very similar notes of black raspberries, black olives and garrigue. Perhaps a bit lighter-bodied (still medium to full-bodied), it’s a touch creamy on the mid-palate, then adds hints of dark chocolate on the supple, lingering finish. [...]”

"The 2022 Chateauneuf du Pape Boisrenard, [...], possesses a complex, elegant and fresh bouquet of dark wild berries, garrigue, spices and fresh thyme mingled with dark cherries. Medium to full-bodied, enrobing and layered, textured and elegant, it has a multidimensional core of fruit, velvety tannins and a long, penetrating finish. Built to age gracefully over the next 20 years, this is a real success."

"The flagship from this terrific estate, the 2022 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Boisrenard is based on mostly Grenache (80%) along with a kitchen sink blend of other varieties that's aging primarily in tronconique tanks. [...] As always, there's a certain Burgundian-like elegance and finesse in this beauty, but it still brings depth, richness, and length. It's a gorgeous wine that will benefit from 2-4 years of bottle age and evolve for 15+years."

"A well-crafted, focused, textured and seductive Chateauneuf-du-Pape. The nose expresses notes of wild berries, raspberries, dried herbs, sand, bay leaves and stones. It's full-bodied with fine tannins. Serious and layered with plenty of drive and precision. The subtle core of fruit combines perfectly with the herbs and spices, giving a long, flavorful and harmonious finish."

“There's an alluring prettiness to this solid red, with violet and rose hip high tones overlaying a core of cassia and black raspberry. Both firm and vibrant on the palate, with chalky mineral, iron and cooling river stone notes adding contrast. A smoky incense element plays out on the persistent finish.” .”

“This red’s attractive violet, black currant and plum flavors show a liberal dusting of black pepper. Offers plenty of graphite pwer, while an intriguing eucalyptus note brings freshness, with savory, salty mesquite and mineral notes splaying out.
